

Post-Election Recap

Presenter: Mitch Vakerics, Managing Director, and Erin Graefe Dorton, Senior Advisor, of Prime Policy Group

This presentation by our colleagues at Prime Policy Group will give an overview of recently passed policies regarding kidney disease, the 2022 midterm election as well as predictions for the 118th Congress.

About the presenters: Mitch Vakerics, a Managing Director at Prime Policy Group, has been a prominent leader in shaping healthcare policy in Washington, DC for over 15 years. After serving as a trusted adviser to several members of Congress, Mitch provides policy and political acumen on healthcare matters and helps clients craft and execute their government affairs strategies. Erin Graefe Dorton, a Senior Advisor at Prime Policy Group, represents a diverse portfolio of issues for clients including appropriations and federal representation of state and local governments. She has an extensive network of Capitol Hill relationships, notably with the House Democratic Leadership. For over 14 years, Erin worked one-on-one with Members of the House Democratic Leadership and their staff, including Speaker Nancy Pelosi, Majority Leader Steny Hoyer, and Majority Whip Jim Clyburn.
